Allpresan - The patented formulation of the foot care foam has a unique advantage: during application, they form a two dimensional, two-phase net structure which strengthens the skin's protective function without clogging pores. Since there is no heat accumulation, the natural functions of the skin are not impaired; the skin is allowed to breath, which is especially important to sensitive skin. Allpresan is produced without the use of any oily ointment base, making it absorb almost immediately.

FootLogix - Footlogix is the world's first and only PEDICEUTICAL® Mousse Foot Care line made with pharmaceutical-grade ingredients developed by Katharin von Gavel, one of North America's leading authorities and true pioneers in Pedi-CARE. The Footlogix unique, groundbreaking Dermal Infusion Technology®, along with its scientific formulation, enables active ingredients to penetrate faster and deeper into troubled skin of the feet.
